Subject: Motion to Reschedule Hearing

Ref: Case No: 2004-219-E

Date: Feb. 28, 2006 VIA TELEFAX AND US MAIL

Mr. Terreni:

Further to my comments in lines 1 and 2, page 4 of the Motion to Continue. I respectfully refer you to SCRCP Rule 12, and more especially Rule 40 (i) (1) (2) providing for continuance for cause and for absence of material witnesses, in this case, myself of course.

On the last point please note: On Tuesday, February 14, 2006, I was informed that I have been scheduled for further eye surgery on April 12, 2006 at the Storm Eye Institute, of the Medical University of South Carolina, in Charleston. Please refer to the attached copy of the surgery confirmation. Several weeks convalescence will be required before I may have full use of my eyes.

For your further information and file, I wish to advise you that I also have several additional medical appointments during March and April at both DUMC in Durham N.C. and MUSC in Charleston relating to cardiology, oncology, and neurology.

I wanted to bring these recent developments to your attention in view of the Hearing scheduled for April 13, 2006 and my recent motion to re-schedule that Hearing.

Please also be advised that I shall be filing several interrogatories shortly for further discovery in this case. Based on past and more recent experience in dealing with Mr. Anthony, it is to be expected these will be ignored or evaded inducing motions to compel. Please refer to my letter to you dated Jan. 6, 2006, Points No. 8, page 2. Mr.

Anthony has ignored that request to date. And he refuses to issue a notarized statement swearing to the truth and accuracy of his statements in his letters to you dated December 5, 2005 and January 9, 2006, both of which I shall respond to in due course.

It is my view that the Hearing should be continued until after the end of May to allow for necessary discovery to pursue this case against the Petitioner. Please refer to the Point No. 7, Motion to Continue, page 3.

Finally please refer to Point No. 5, page 2 of my letter to you dated Jan. 6, 2006 where I request that the first day of the Hearing commence in the afternoon. (p-l-c-a-se!)

Thank you for your kind cooperation.

Yours sincerely,

Beatrice Weaver
